WHAT'S LEFT OF RUSSIA

Maybe you think that the Russians are doing nothing nowadays but revolting and counter-revolting. But there's another popular diversion—seceding from Russia. Finland, Siberia and Crimea have all declared republics. Poland has set up a kingdom; Ukraine has declared an independent nation and Caucasus has announced its intention to sue itself.

FIRE MARSHAL HORAN TO BE HERE MONDAY

City Will Get Its Annual State Fire Hazard Inspection.

Every building in Fairmont will be thoroughly inspected for fire hazard beginning Monday, December 10. State Fire Marshal John S. Horan will arrive in this city on Monday morning to supervise the inspection. He will be assisted in the work by Chief Okie Watkins of the Fairmont fire department.

It is probable that it will take several days for the inspection as it is the plans to make a building to building survey of the city.

Chief Watkins of the local fire department has been furnished with necessary posters to properly advertise the inspection. All property owners in the city are urged to inspect their buildings before Monday of next week, the date on which the inspection begins. Any old rubbish should be removed and any bad electrical connections repaired before the inspection begins. By so doing the property owners of the city may assist in making the city free from fire hazards and protect their own interests as well.

GOVERNOR NAMES SELF DENIAL DAYS

Wants West Virginia to Get in Line With Food Administration

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 8.—Governor John J. Conwell today issued a proclamation in part as follows:

The Food Administration asks everyone to maintain rigidly a minimum of at least:

"One wheatless day each week and one wheatless meal each day; the wheatless day to be Wednesday. By wheatless we mean to eat no wheat products."

"One meatless day each week, shall be Tuesday, and one meatless meal each day."

"One porkless day each week in addition to Tuesday, which shall be Saturday. By porkless we mean no fresh or salted pork, bacon, lard or ham."

Therefore in accordance with the regulations prescribed above and in accordance with the request of said department of the federal government, I therefore designate Wednesday of each week as a "wheatless day," Tuesday of each week as "meatless day," and Saturday of each week as "porkless day," and urgently request all patriotic citizens in West Virginia to scrupulously observe them as such. To do so is one of the few and simple ways by which the people at home can aid the men in the armies and to do something for humanity and for the success of our armies in winning the war.

VISITING MUSICIANS PLEASE CLUB WOMEN

Reports on War Work Feature Meeting of the Woman's Club.

The Marcato club, a musical organization of Clarksburg and one of the leading musical organizations of the state, presented a program yesterday in this city at the regular meeting of the Woman's Club. A large audience greeted the performers and there was much enthusiastic applause. The vocal soloists were Miss Beale Genevieve Byrd, contralto, and Clyde Beckett, baritone, with Mrs. Ionia Smith Cuppet as piano accompanist.

Miss Byrd, who has a splendid contralto voice, rendered several numbers, most artistically including the cycle of songs from the Rubaiyat-Khayan by Rogers, two other numbers one of which was Oley Speaks popular "To You" and also sang a duet with Mr. Beckett.

Mr. Beckett, who has been heard in this city before, upheld the splendid reputation his former appearance created. He rendered a group of Night songs from Fitted Sanderson.

Piano numbers by Miss Jean Howell Burns and Miss Margaret Holt were artistically executed and were warmly applauded. Miss Cora Atchinson, president of the club, accompanied the representatives here and took charge of the program.

Reports of several committees preceded the musical program including a report from the French war relief committee by the chairman, Mrs. W. I. Lydic, from the Red Cross committee by Mrs. Joseph Rosier, and from the Red Cross Christmas stamp committee by Mrs. A. L. Lehman. The president, Mrs. Jas. A. Meredith, announced that the club had contributed the sum of $40 to various charities of the city. In

"HALF PAST 20" BEFUDDLES SAMMY AT FIRST—IT'S FRANCE'S 24-HOUR TIME

When the Sammies in France first heard such expressions as "Meet me at half past twenty" and "I'll be ready at a quarter to thirteen," they thought they were being "kidded."

And when they first saw a watch dial with 24 hours on it well—they resolved to take the pledge.

But soon they found that the 24-hour system is one of the changes the war has brought over there. The "a. m." and "p. m." of the old system invited too many military errors.

The second diagram shows how a 24-hour watch may be made from a 12-hour one by putting in the figures from 13 to 24, for use in the afternoon.

You can appreciate why the French predict universal adoption of the plan if you think how much time you've wasted trying to figure from a time table whether a train left at 10:30 in the morning or 10:30 at night.

Color of French Flag Changed. The color of the French flag was changed in 1124, when Louis the Fat carried the red oriflamme of St. Denis in his contests with Henry V, the German emperor.
